

CWA FIRE SAFETY POSTER COMPETITION

The CWA conducted a competition for children to promote awareness of bushfire readiness. The talented winner of this competition is Lili Ylioff, who is shown below with Dee Roebuck, the President of the Manjimup Branch of the CWA.

On 29th September at 2.00pm a talk at the CWA Rooms in Giblett Street will be held, where FESA officers will explain how women can protect themselves and their property in a safe manner during bushfire. Afternoon Tea will be provided. All women are welcome.
