Little People Flying High

This learning activity helped children understand about how we need to set a goal to help us improve. When we know the goal then we can plan specific actions to help us get there. Good luck with your goals, Room 5 students.
I'm going places! I'm going to try my best and never give up.