

Monochrome Patterns

Students from Room 5 changed a rectangular black card into something special. By cutting interesting shapes from the edge of the card, they learnt about positive and negative space, an important understanding for having good spatial awareness. I'm sure you'll agree that the results are particularly eye-catching.

